TUMKUR TOWN MUNICIPALITY.

Notification dated the 19th December 1938 under Section 48 (2) of the Town Municipalities Act of 1933.

Notice is hereby given to the inhabitants of the Tumkur Town Municipality that the Municipal Council are desirous of enforcing the following bye-laws. Any person objecting to the adoption of these bye-laws may prefer his objection in writing to the President of the Municipal Council on or before the 12th January 1939 after which no objection will be entertained.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 48 (1) (a) of the Town Municipalities Act of 1933, the following bye-laws have been proposed to be framed for the administration of markets in Tumkur Town :—

1. All shop-keepers, stall-holders and sitters in the market shall be cleanly dressed.

2. All scales, weights and measures shall be kept clean and in proper order. Standard weights and measures will be kept in charge of the market sergeant.

3. (i) No person suffering from leprosy or other loathsome or contagious disease shall be allowed to keep a stall in any market, or be employed in any way in such market and any such person coming within the market, may be expelled by the market sergeant or his assistants.

(ii) And no person who is a contact of the person suffering from any infectious disease residing in the same dwelling or block of buildings where such infectious disease occurred shall be permitted to hold a stall or sit in the market until he produces a certificate from the Medical Officer of health to the effect that he has evacuated the house, or block of buildings, or taken such precaution as may be approved by the Medical Officer of health, to prevent the spread of infection.

4. No person shall satisfy a call of nature or commit any other nuisance within the limits of the market, except in a urinal or latrine provided for that purpose.

5. No person shall spit in any stall, holding or in any place in the market except in suitable receptacles which will be provided for the purpose, and no person shall throw or drop any vegetable or other matter likely to decay in, or upon any avenue or passage of the market or any of the immediate approaches thereto, to the danger or damage of the public. All such matter should be thrown into the receptacles provided for the purpose.

6. No person shall sell or expose for sale in the market any meat, fish, grain or other animal or vegetable matter which is decomposed or unfit for consumption or any meat that by blowing or other artificial means is made to appear to be in a condition differing from what it really is.

7. The Medical Officer of health, the Chief Officer, the Sanitary Inspector, or any officer of the Municipal Council empowered by the President shall have free access to the market at any time on any day and the Medical Officer of health shall have the power to prohibit the sale of any food stuff exposed in the market, if the officer is of opinion that it is unfit for human consumption or adulterated in such a manner as to make it injurious to health.

8. For the purpose of Rule 6, the decision of the Medicial Officer shall be final so far as regards articles of food or drink that are of a perishable nature. In the case of other articles if the dealer so requires, the Medical Officer of health shall take a sample of the stuff and forward it to the Chemical Examiner to Government whose decision in the matter will be considered final. Pending the report of the Chemical Examiner to Government, the Medical Officer of health shall put his seal on the articles and prevent its sale for the time being.

9. The market sergeant will visit the market and the slaughter houses every morning and hold a thorough inspection of all the animals and goods. He will be personally held responsible for the quality of the foodstuffs exposed for sale in the market.

10. All cooked articles or such foodstuffs as are to be consumed uncooked shall only be exposed for sale in properly constructed cases which can efficiently exclude contamination by flies or dust at the same time permitting free admission of air.

12. (i) All the stall-holders will be required to keep their places, persons and utensils scrupulously clean.

(ii) And all holders of the stalls for the sale of articles of food and drink shall cause such stalls and all benches on which such articles are kept or exposed for sale to be throughly cleansed daily, and every board or place in which meat or fish is kept to be scraped and washed daily.

13. No person shall bring a dog into the market. All stray dogs found inside the market will be destroyed.

14. No person shall remove any meat or offal from the market without fully wrapping it up in cloth or paper.

15. No person shall permanently live in the market.

16. No person shall be allowed to bathe or wash his clothes at any water-tap inside the market.

17. A breach of any of the above rules shall render the offender liable on conviction to the penalty prescribed in Section 48 (z) (aa) of the Town Municipalities Act of 1933, namely a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

18. The market will be open for use by the public from 7 A.M. to 7 P.M. on ordinary days and 7 A.M. to 8 P.M. on fair (Santhe) days.

19. No goods shall be brought into the market except such as are intended for sale, and such goods shall be kept only in the stalls, sitting, etc., intended therefor.

20. No projections of any kind from shops, stalls, or sittings shall be allowed. Every article forming such projections will be removed by the market sergeant, or any other person authorised by the President.

21. No person shall open a stall without first purchasing a ticket after paying the fees prescribed as per schedule hereto attached. The schedule may be modified or added to by the Municipal Council from time to time.

22. Any person acting otherwise will have to pay double the prescribed fees or if he is found to possess a ticket of less than the proper value, will have to pay double the difference. Whoever refuses to pay this amount will not be permitted to expose his goods for sale in the market. The stalls in the market will be numbered and boards recording the articles or goods to be sold therein and the rate of fees to be paid on each stall be hung in a conspicuous place.

23. A scale of fees payable will be pasted to a board under the signature of the President of the Municipal Council and hung at the front door of the market ticket-room between the hours of 6 A.M. and 6 P. M. for the information of the public. Copies thereof will be kept with the market sergeant and in the Town Municipal Office.

24. Whenever it is found that the number of shops for the sale of a certain class of goods or articles is in excess of the number of stalls allotted therefor, the market sergeant will arrange to provide applicants with stalls which are vacant elsewhere.

25. Every shop-keeper, stall-holder or sitter therein shall remove his goods and close his shop daily at or before the time of closing of the market to allow of the market being thoroughly cleansed for use next day.

26. (i) Shop-keepers who intend to stop during the night occasionally will have to pay, in addition to the fees prescribed in the schedule, a night fee of one anna per stall for every night.

(ii) Night-fee tickets will be issued daily up to 6 P.M. Shop-keepers who intend to remain during the night should possess night-fee tickets by that time.

(iii) Any person contravening this rule will have to pay double the prescribed rate of night-fee.

(iv) No person not possessing night-fee tickets shall remain inside the market after closing hours.

27. No shop, stall or sitting shall be sublet without the sanction of the President.

28. (i) Stalls and shops intended to be occupied permanently will not be let for less than one month and all rents therefor shall be paid in advance on or before the 18th of each month to the market sergeant or any other person authorised by the President to collect such rents, failing which a penalty of one anna a day for every day of default after the 18th shall be levied in addition to any other penal action prescribed by the rules.

(ii) Where stalls are let permanently under this rule the monthly rent shall be fixed by the President with reference to the class of goods to be sold and the rates of market fees and night fees payable on such goods.

29. Persons willing to occupy stalls permanently will first apply to the President for the same and when the applications are sanctioned and stalls allotted, the applicant will execute an agreement on a duly stamped paper in the form hitherto appended.

The stalls are liable to be resumed after one week's notice in writing to the occupant without any reasons being assigned and the Municipal Council will not be liable to any damages on account of such resumption.

30. The monthly rents for the occupation of beef and mutton stalls, and shops shall be paid in advance on or before the 10th of each month. Any stall holder failing to pay the rent in due time will be liable to have his stall taken away from him by the market sergeant.

31. Lost articles found by any person within the limits of the market shall be handed over to the police to be disposed of.

32. No person shall create a disturbance in the market by singing or beating of tom toms or by other musical instruments or by quarrelling or by using abusive languages. Any person contravening this condition is liable to be summarily ejected.

33. No person shall hawk, carry about or cry any article whatever for sale in the market.

34. The market sergeant and his subordinates may expel from the market premises any person who is found drunk or begging or loitering or misconducting himself or infringing any of the above conditions or who is a lunatic and if such person is a tenant or his servant, they may (subject to the approval of the President) prevent him from further carrying on any trade or business in the market or occupying any shop or stall therein.

35. A vendor of disorderly conduct may be expelled from the market and prevented from further carrying on any trade or business or occupying any shop or stall in the market.

36. No person resorting to any market, or being in charge of any vehicle, cart or truck or any horse or any other beast or burden shall cause or allow such vehicle or beast to stand within the precincts of the market, for a longer time than shall be reasonably necessary for getting in or out of such vehicle or leading such waggon, cart, truck or beast or burden.

37. No auction sale will be allowed in the market except under the special order of the President of the Town Municipal Council.

38. All vendors with their servants or agents shall obey all reasonable order of the market sergeant, but shall have the right of appealing against such orders to the President.

39. In case of any stall holder contravening any of the conditions, the President shall have power according to the nature of the offence, to prohibit such stall-holder, his agents, assistants and servants from occupying any stall in the market for a period not exceeding two months, or in the case of a permanent stall-holder, with the written sanction of the Council, to cancell his agreement altogether.
